On April 9, 2021, the Court received by email two photographed letters from plaintiff, proceeding pro se. Plaintiff acknowledged that she failed to appear for the April 9, 2021, conference because she did not update the Court as to a change in her address. Plaintiff also included updated contact information.

Plaintiff requests to receive electronic service of all documents. While the Court declines to email plaintiff filings, it notes that plaintiff may sign up to receive electronic notices of filings by email. Instructions and a consent to electronic service form is attached to this Order, and is available on the Court's website at: <https://www.nysd.uscourts.gov/sites/default/files/pdf/covid-19/Notice%20-%20Pro%20Se%20Email.pdf>

Plaintiff is instructed to file all documents through the regular course—that is by mailing documents to the Pro Se Intake unit at 300 Quarropas Street, White Plains, NY 10601. Plaintiff should not email chambers or the Court's staff to submit documents that must be filed on the docket. Alternatively, plaintiff may request permission for electronic case filing. A form motion, and accompanying instructions, are available on the Court's website at: <https://nysd.uscourts.gov/sites/default/files/2019-04/2012-prosemotionecffiling-final.pdf>. A form motion is also attached to this Order.

In addition, on a temporary basis and because of the current public health crisis, pro se litigants may submit filings by email to Temporary Pro Se Filing@nysd.uscourts.gov.

Temporary Acceptance of Pro Se Filings by Email

Background

In response to the coronavirus/COVID-19 pandemic, the President of the United States has declared a national emergency and the Governor of New York has banned mass gatherings and ordered other restrictive measures throughout the state.

In order to protect the health of the public and staff while continuing court operations, effective April 1, 2020, and until further order of the Court, the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York has announced the temporary acceptance of filings via email from pro se parties without electronic filing privileges (see details below).

Pro se parties who do not have electronic filing privileges or who are unable to send documents by email may continue to submit documents by regular mail or through the depository box located in the lobby of the U.S. Courthouse at 500 Pearl Street, New York, NY, or the U.S. Courthouse at 300 Quarropas Street, White Plains, NY.

Questions may be directed to the Pro Se intake Unit at (212) 805-0175.

ECF Rules - Section 1. Scope of Electronic Filing

1.1 (IMPORTANT NOTE - due to the coronavirus/COVID-19 pandemic, in addition to accepting pro se filings in paper form, the court has announced the temporary acceptance of filings via email from pro se parties without electronic filing privileges. See the April 1, 2020, Addendum to these Rules for further instructions.)

Except as expressly provided and in exceptional circumstances preventing a party from filing electronically, all documents required to be filed with the Court must be filed electronically. Any party unable to comply with this requirement must seek permission of the Court to file in the traditional manner, on paper. Any such application made after regular business hours may be submitted through the night depository box maintained pursuant to Local Civil Rule 1.2.

Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, documents filed by pro se litigants must be filed in the traditional manner, on paper, and will be scanned and docketed by the Clerk's Office into the ECF system.

Pro Se parties without electronic filing privileges but with an email address are strongly encouraged to consent to receive electronic service of filings through notifications sent by email from the court's Electronic Case Filing (ECF) system. Electronic service is faster than service by mail and is the same system used by attorneys.

Pro se litigants who wish to consent to receive electronic service must fill out the Consent to Electronic Service (for pro se cases) form. You may disregard the instruction at the bottom of the form to return the form by mail and instead return the signed consent form by email, in PDF format, to:

Temporary_Pro_Se_Filing@nysd.uscourts.gov

Pro se litigants who consent to receive electronic service of filings will no longer receive the same documents in paper form by mail.

If you consent to receiving electronic service, you will receive a Notice of Electronic Filing (NEF) by e-mail each time a document is filed in your case. After receiving the NEF, you are permitted one "free look" at the document by clicking on the hyperlinked document number in the e-mail. Once you click the hyperlink and access the document, you may not be able to access the document for free again. After 15 days, the hyperlink will no longer provide free access. Any time the hyperlink is accessed after the first "free look", or the first 15 days, you may be charged to view the document. For this reason, you should print or save the document during the "free look" to avoid future charges.

Questions may be directed to the Pro Se intake Unit at (212) 805-0175.

Pro Se (Nonprisoner) Consent & Registration Form to Receive Documents Electronically

Parties who are not represented by an attorney and are not currently incarcerated may choose to receive documents in their cases electronically (by e-mail) instead of by regular mail. Receiving documents by regular mail is still an option, but if you would rather receive them only electronically, you must do the following:

1. Sign up for a PACER login and password by contacting PACER<sup>1</sup> at www.pacer.uscourts.gov or 1-800-676-6856;
2. Complete and sign this form.

If you consent to receive documents electronically, you will receive a Notice of Electronic Filing by e-mail each time a document is filed in your case. After receiving the notice, you are permitted one "free look" at the document by clicking on the hyperlinked document number in the e-mail. Once you click the hyperlink and access the document, you may not be able to access the document for free again. After 15 days, the hyperlink will no longer provide free access. Any time that the hyperlink is accessed after the first "free look" or the 15 days, you will be asked for a PACER login and may be charged to view the document. For this reason, you should print or save the document during the "free look" to avoid future charges.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Under Rule 5 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Local Civil Rule 5.2, and the Court's Electronic Case Filing Rules & Instructions, documents may be served by electronic means. If you register for electronic service:

1. You will no longer receive documents in the mail;
2. If you do not view and download your documents during your "free look" and within 15 days of when the court sends the e-mail notice, you will be charged for looking at the documents;
3. This service does not allow you to electronically file your documents;
4. It will be your duty to regularly review the docket sheet of the case.<sup>2</sup>
